Six Pacs

The Getaway People

Ladies and gentlemen, it is my absolute pleasure
To introduce to you, here, tonight
The Getaway People for you listening pleasureFrom the top of [Incomprehensible] the beach
From the prisons of Birmingham to the Walnut creek
They rise above the loud speaker
So, we can share in their loveSix Pacs and Bigmacs keep us rollin down the road
Cigarettes and coffee, where ever we go
Learn to appreciate those simple little things
And open up my arms to what the road might bringCramped in a van and we do the best we can
On a journey filled with tears and laughter
From the Journey Turnpike
We set sail on the getaway rafterPeople all around us, they shower us with love
You better keep it comin cause we just cant get enoughWhere would we be without a little love?
You can't get by without a little love
Everybody needs a little bit of love sometimeWhere would we be without a little love?
You can't get by without a little love
Everybody needs a little bit of love sometimeNow, slip me a can and I pour it in a glass
So, we can share a little love and happiness
Dont matter who you are or where you came from Cause if youre down with the G, came get someCrusin round the country through every little town
You always find the coolest of people come aroundWhere would we be without a little love?
You can't get by without a little love
Everybody needs a little bit of love sometimeWhere would we be without a little love?
You can't get by without a little love
Everybody needs a little bit of love sometimeSix Pacs and Bigmacs keep us rollin down the road
Cigarettes and coffee, where ever we go
People all around us, they shower us with love
You better keep it comin cause we just cant get enoughWhere would we be without a little love?
You can't get by without a little love
Everybody needs a little bit of love sometimeWhere would we be without a little love?
You can't get by without a little love
Everybody needs a little bit of love sometimeWhere would we be without a little love?
You can't get by without a little love
Everybody needs a little bit of love sometimeWhere would we be without a little love?
You can't get by without a little love
Everybody needs a little bit of love sometime[Incomprehensible]
