Faithful To You

Syleena Johnson

Yeah yeah
Your love, your love
Is so good to meEvery time I think about
The changes we've been going through
I think of how losing you
Would be the worst thing I could do'Cause no one makes me feel this was
This calm, this warm, this whole, this safe
You humble me in every way
With every single word you sayYou make me wanna sing, you make me wanna shout
You make me wanna know, what love is all about
You make me wanna try, you show me I can fly
I'm so faithful to youAnd though I'm just a girl caught up in this world
I want you to know I'll let all that go
To you I will be true and line my life to show you
I'm so faithful to youLove is patient, love is kind
For me your love comes right on time
I never knew I'd feel so good
Just 'cause you always understoodAnd even though I went astray
You took me back and let me stay
Now that I changed my ways
I want to thank you for loving me anywayYou make me wanna sing, you make me wanna shout
You make me wanna know, what love is all about
You make me wanna try, you show me I can fly
I'm so faithful to youAnd though I'm just a girl caught up in this world
I want you to know I'll let all that go
To you I will be true and line my life to show you
I'm so faithful to youWhatever you do
I'll be right there, I'll be right there
And wherever you go
I'll be right there, I'll be right there
And whatever you need
I will supply, I will supply
'Cause I'm faithful to you
And only you, and only youYou make me wanna sing, you make me wanna shout
You make me wanna know, what love is all about
You make me wanna try, you show me I can fly
I'm so faithful to youAnd though I'm just a girl caught up in this world
I want you to know I'll let all that go
To you I will be true and line my life to show you

I'm so faithful to youYour the only one for me
Your the only one I need
You make me complete
Your so good to me
Oh, I'm so faithful
Why can't you be so faithful to you nowYou make me wanna sing, you make me wanna shout
You make me wanna know, what love is all about
You make me wanna try, you show me I can fly
I'm so faithful to youAnd though I'm just a girl caught up in this world
I want you to know I'll let all that go
To you I will be true and line my life to show you
I'm so faithful to you
