

The Chosen Ones

Burning Image

Expect your life for free, decisions in your hands
You want too much from me; I'll help you if I can Save meThe war has just begun
Together we are strong
Save me, save meThe tension in your words are written in the sand
There is no one left to serve to carry out your plans
You sacrificed your son, you fought for useless land
You are the Chosen Ones, or can't you see that?Refuse to fight for me, submit to your demands
Is that what you believe? Is that your final stand?
Save me!The tension in your words are written in the sand
There is no one left to serve to carry out your plans
You sacrificed our sons, you fought for useless land
You are the Chosen Ones! Or can't you see that?The tension in our world, is wringing from your hands
There is no one left to serve, to fuck up all our plans
You sacrificed your sons, you fought for useless land
You are the Chosen Ones
Or can't you see that
Save me!
