Monkey boy

Nomy

You're a monkey boy monkey boy
Living on the edge and the kids are screaming louderYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Standing on the edge inside you're getting prouderYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Living on the edge and the kids are screaming louderYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
just When to let him go
If I were you I would do soSo keep him in a cage
And he'll become enraged
You'll better find a safer placeSome people never care to help the solitaire
They all say they are unawareHe's sitting looking at you
And wonder what the hell are you gonna do
When he is out he's gonna get to youYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Living on the edge and the kids are screaming louderYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Standing on the edge inside you're getting prouderOh Yeah,Run little monkey boy, run run, run little monkey boy, run run, run little monkey boy, run run, you better run awaySo look what they have done
The war have just begun
So monkey boy go get your gunIf you are feeling low
It's time to let it show
So bring me all the hate you knowAnd everything that you really wanna be is gonna be the struggle fighting in your fantasy
When you are out they'll never get to youYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Living on the edge and the kids are screaming louderYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Standing on the edge inside you're getting prouderYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Living on the edge and the kids are screaming louderYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Standing on the edge inside you're getting prouderRun little monkey boy, run run, run little monkey boy, run run, run little monkey boy, run run,But if you fall right next to me
I will stand righteous for theyAnd if I die right next to you as will they do rest beside youYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Living on the edge and the kids are screaming louderYou're a monkey boy monkey boy
Standing on the edge inside you're getting prouderMonkey Boy!Run little monkey boy, run run, run little monkey boy, run run, run little monkey boy, run run,
You better run awayRun little monkey, run!
