

Pick 'Em Up

Lynyrd Skynyrd

Well sometimes I lose my direction
And sometimes I jump off track
But when I hide out baby, I can always get it back
I need to feel the cool breeze,
In my face, the rumble of the engine, between my legs
Hey little sister you can color me gone[Chorus]
So if I want to stay out all night long you can't stop me from runnin wild,
Don't you worry how long I'm gone, I come back every once in a while
I pick em up, and lay em all down
I never like my feet to ever hit the ground
Don't miss when I'm gone 'cause I'll be around,
I'm a free spirit baby pick me up, and lay me on down Now I know that I got me a good life,
Jim Bean, and women they treat me right
I make my own rules, like it or not
Now don't misunderstand me baby, I give in every once in a while,
Well its times like honey, I'll leave you with a smile[Chorus]
