

Heavy Fire

Adam Lambert

I'll be trying too hard when I already lost
I can't bet on these cards cause I know what they'll cost
If I get a scent that's meant to trip my reason
I'm sold, I can't be told to pass what I had last I don't wanna get down in the flame
Why you gotta make me play this game
Just like a honest liar
Taking on heavy fire
I don't wanna melt down in the heat
Like I got the devil at my feet
Just like a funeral pyre
Taking on heavy fire So give it to me, throw me some shade
Why can't I see this conclusion I've saved
When I think about the doubt that I depend on
I'm sold, I can't be told to pass what I had last I don't wanna get down in the flame
Why you gotta make me play this game
Just like a honest liar
Taking on heavy fire
I don't wanna melt down in the heat
Like I got the devil at my feet
Just like a funeral pyre
Taking on heavy fire Like an honest liar
Taking on a heavy fire I feel so complete
Just like an honest liar
Taking on heavy fire
