Anything

Zididada

Open up your eyes so you can see
Everything's for free
Girls with long blond hair
One kiss and you'll be thereThe sunset in her eyes
Loves to tell you lies
But you will never know
Lean back and let it flowShe makes you think
This night will last foreverShe makes you shine
So bright and fine
She makes you fly away so high
High that she would so anythingThough you had a ball, you might feel pain
Pride will mess your brain
You could limb out of here
But that will get you nowhereClose your eyes and you will see
Second ride ain't free
The Cathouse always wins
You slowly sliding inShe makes you think
This night will last foreverShe makes you shine
So bright and fine
She makes you fly away so high
High that she would so anything
