Up Up Up Up Up

State Shirt

What happened to your eyes?
Plastic lenses, plastic skies
Above it all, you're standing tall.
Behind you left it allDon't look down nowPretend that it's over
You'll never be closer
You know where you came fromGo on and on and on and onBlame it on the shining stars
Lost in space, you look so far
What really makes you feel so happy?
When you find out, we'll still be here.Don't look down nowPretend that it's over
You'll never be closer
You know where you came from Ignore those that made you.Go on and on and on and on
