

Ghost Under Rocks

Ra Ra Riot

Uh, oh, ohhh (6x)

With every little thing
Your owner's lookin back
At you it starts to mean
Less than it ever did

Oh, ever
On every inch of stone
Skin and bone
Made to leave you

Here you are
You are breathing
Like little ghosts
Under rocks
That don't sound
In pockets
Folks found your problem
It's lost and forgotten

Oh, oh, oh
You soak in one dream
You've spent there
You are gonna dream there

Right
Now you ask your baby
Why? why? why?

Forget
The the frequent flyers
Leading an honored life
To give us this much more
Safe from a cut and cheer

On ever
On every inch of stone
Skin and bone

Made to leave you

Here you are
You are breathing
Like little ghosts
Under rocks
That don't smile in public
Folks found your problem
It's lost and forgotten

Oh, oh, oh
You soak in one dream
You've spent there
You are gonna dream there

Dryyyy
Now you ask your babies
Why? why? why? why?

And if you can't decide
You will do
Either weep or moan
Your wasting
In a moments to
Anyway you want it to Ohh

But you could have had
Turn it into broken wood
Takin' off a Saturday
I'm gonna fan a parasoul
Am fairer than a clown

Oh, no
Maybe there
Were two again
And if it ever
Was at all
I'm taking you up
As an offer
Up as an offer

Here you are
You are breathing
Like little ghosts
Under rocks

In pockets
Folks found your problem
It's lost and forgotten

Oh, oh, oh
You soaking
In one dream
You've spent there
You have gone
And dream there

Now you ask your babies
Why? why? why? whyyy?
