

Mama Don't Allow No Music

Doc Watson

                  mumma don't like no music played around here mumma don't want no music played around here we don't care what your mumma don't like peep just a little boy anyhow mumma don't like no music played around heremumma don't want no mandolin played in here mumma don't want no mandolin played around here oh name don't care what mumma don't like gonna play that mandolin hot anyhow don't like that mandolin played in herewell mumma don't want no 5 stringed banjo played around here mumma don't want no banjo played around here name don't care what your mumma don't like gonna pick on the banjo anyhow i said mumma don't want no banjo played around herenow mumma don't want no drums played in here mumma don't want no drums played around here name don't care what your mumma don't like gonna play the skins off the drums anyhow don't want no hot drums played in heremumma don't want no slide guitar played around here mumma don't want no slide guitar played here name don't care what your mumma don't like gonna play it sweet now bluesy anyhow don't like that slide played around herewell ya mumma don't want no bass picking' in here mumma don't want no bass played around here my uncle don't care what mummer don't like gonna pick on the bass strings anyhow don't like that bass played around here.....play it son playmumma don't want no piano picking' in here mumma don't want no piano played in here uncle jug don't care what mummer don't like gonna pick on the piano anyhow mumma don't want no ivory strappin' around herenow mummer don't want no honk guitar played here mumma don't want no guitar picking in here name don't care what your mumma don't like he'll pick a little lick to ya anyhow don't like no honk guitar played heremumma don't want no jamming' it up around here mumma don't want no jamming' it up around here

                  we all gonna pick it hot one time anyhow mumma don't want no jamming' it up around here
