

Listen Love

Jon Lucien

Listen love to the song I am singing
Hopefully, you have heard my every word
 But you see
 My heart must remind me
 For it's so in love with you

 Perfectness, is the link between us
 Love so real, feels like I am a child again
 Chasing dreams filled with red and yellow colors
 Eating gingerbread and wine

Where's this place called heaven, could it be that's where you're from?
You unfold my every need, like you knew me when, my life began

 Listen love to the song I am singing
 Hopefully, our Supreme can here my plea
 Patiently, you'll be my commander
 For I am so in love with you.
