

Burnin' Bush

Earth, Wind & Fire

What does it take to show an illustration
Of the hurt and the pain of a nation
One glowing look upon a ragged canvas
Tell the story of our past and present situation That old bush just keeps on burning
Share the hope for future learning
Nobody seems to show they're learning
That old bush just keeps on burning
And I wonder will we ever feel the flame, yeah This way of life on total exhibition
Show the way in which we live of a impatient nation
This tree of life so far from perfection
Share a little love to improve our situation, yeah
That old bush just keeps on burning
Nobody seems to show they're learning Flow of light could really stand a listen
Bring the dark to the light, show us
What we've been missing?
Not many men are satisfied
Without no light there ain't no pride
Gonna shout it from the mountain top this evening I wonder could it ever be the same yeah
Yeah I wonder will we ever feel the flame, alright
Will we ever feel the flame, yeah flame There gonna come a time
Things that are on your mind
Trust me and you will find
Everything in your mind
True love is here to find
Simple as number nine
Multiply you will find
Peace and love all the time
Peace and love all the time
Peace and love all the time
Peace and love all the time
