Humble

Edwyn Collins

I can see it in the way you walk
So fine, so fine
I can see it in the way you smile
Divine, divineAnd it's making me humble
It's making me shy
And she's making me humble
She's making me crySomehow, somewhere
I'm looking forward
I know that I'm going to be fineI can see it in the way you walk
So fine, so fine
I can see it in the way you smile
Divine, divineAnd it's making me humble
It's making me shy
And she's making me humble
She's making me cryI can see it in the way you walk
So fine, so fine
I can see it in the way you smile
Divine, divineAnd it's making me humble
It's making me shy
And she's making me humble
She's making me cryAnd she's making me humble
She's making me cry
And she's making me humble
She's making me crySomewhere I'm looking forward
I know that I'm going to be fine
Somehow, somewhere, I'm looking forward
I know that I'm going to be fine
