

Sunsets

Habibi

CHORUS

And I look up to the sunset
On the trees, the trees, they're falling
Little leaves, the leaves are changing
And they change, it changes for a popcanVERSE
Saw him on the corner and I watched him walk away
Caught up with him later and I thought of things to say
Asked him what his name was and he answered with a smile
His name was Joe (his name was Joe)
His name was Joe (his name was Joe)CHORUS

On the trees, the trees, they're falling
Little leaves, the leaves are changing
And they change, it changes for a popcan (x2)VERSE
Saw him on the corner and I watched him walk away
