

The Pace of Sound

Namelessnumberheadman

Draw a line in the sand.

Draw a star. Draw a circle on my hand.

Just because, so I know I won't forget. Turn the volume to three.

Hit the wipers and turn onto the street.

Just because, so I know I won't forget. Stunned and shaken/trying to sleep

Try to read some. I can't.

You know, you know, I never will. Set the sun on the porch.

Leave the air for the music from below.

Just because, so I go to face the work tomorrow Excavate the foulest place, breathing next to me.

I know, I know

I'll spend a long time letting you go. Trailing - linger out in the sun.

Take bearings from a set in stone spot

Point forward and move away at the pace of sound.
