

Know Your Name

Ne-Yo

Excuse me, I couldn't help but notice
You noticing me and I was definitely noticing you
My name is you know my name
But listen, I have a question No, it ain't like me to drop too hard
Or go out of my way to know who you are
Said if you're not one for chasing but I'll admit Something in you has got my attention, girl
So if I can be a gentleman
Can I ask your permission, girl? Said if it's alright with you
Can I know your name?
And maybe call you sometime
Can I know your name?
Can I know your name? Looking at you girl, I see so much
So much potential for something better than that
Like maybe me and you becoming us
I'm not trying to scare you but in your eyes I can see why people write love songs
And if God allowed I could see how
I could love you for so long Said if it's alright with you
Can I know your name?
And maybe call you sometime
Can I know your name?
Can I know your name? Said if it's alright with you
Can I know your name?
And maybe call you sometime
Can I know your name?
Can I know your name? Something about you that makes me wanna know you
Said I wanna get to know you, I just wanna show you me
Said I really wanna get to know you
See what this thing could be Said if it's alright with you
Can I know your name?
And maybe call you sometime
Can I know your name?
Can I know your name? Said if it's alright with you
Can I know your name?
And maybe call you sometime
Can I know your name?
Can I know your name?
