

Sick Salvation

Bloodbath

Foul prayers rise
Staring through the eye of the chasm
 Still at rest but breathing
 Enemy be born
 Grant us knowledge of the opposition
 Spew forth from the earth
Contagious is the one from which the wisdom comes
 So sworn
 Hibernation draws to a close
 Lacerating wings unfold
 Hunger will cease
 Abominations speak from the dark
 Now seek only death
 Antichrist
 Rise before us
 Pain
 From inside
 Release them
 Souls in slavery
 Come my saviour now!
 Face is the one of a reptile
 Rotting teeth and lips
Speaking words of sick salvation
 Whispering eclipse
