Who They Are

Juni Fisher

Unleash the breath that damned wicked soul
Make the sacrifice for good
An omen passed the flame through the night
Benefit the figures face without thorns
Gaze upon thy gate
A spirit finds a light
Embrace it with its burning tears
Howling, crawling, falling, inside
Beyond an bound
The spirit rise and disappeared into the light
Covered by a shadow face

Vengeances for the traitors are thine
See a fallen angel
Raging fire glow
Take the tale let wisdom fill
The beginning of the end for us all
A higher form that makes us feel cold
They said dying alone is our fault
Forbidden and freeze the things that we need
They said judgment day upon
