

Who They Are

Juni Fisher

Unleash the breath that damned wicked soul
    Make the sacrifice for good
An omen passed the flame through the night
    Benefit the figures face without thorns
        Gaze upon thy gate
        A spirit finds a light
    Embrace it with its burning tears
    Howling, crawling, falling, inside
        Beyond an bound
The spirit rise and disappeared into the light
    Covered by a shadow face

Vengeances for the traitors are thine
    See a fallen angel
    Raging fire glow
    Take the tale let wisdom fill
    The beginning of the end for us all
A higher form that makes us feel cold
    They said dying alone is our fault
Forbidden and freeze the things that we need
    They said judgment day upon
