Why

No Authority

Someone tell me why, why, why does it hurt everyday?
All I do is cry, cry ,cry, why do I feel this way?
Just let me live my life, please, undo this pain
'Cause I can't take this no, no, no more, you're all I'm living for Now, baby, I just sit here and think
Of you and how it got this way
I told you that forever's in view
But instead you chose to leave
Now I'm on my knees
Someone tell me why, why, why does it hurt everyday?
All I do is cry, cry ,cry, why do I feel this way?
Just let me live my life, please, undo this pain
'Cause I can't take this no, no, no more, you're all I'm living for Now you knew that I wanted you to stay
So how could you just turn away
Now baby, I've done all that I could
But you're still going away
I never thought you would
How can I go on living this way
When my love was yours to claim?
You just turned it away
Someone tell me why, why, why does it hurt everyday?
All I do is cry, cry ,cry, why do I feel this way?
Just let me live my life, please, undo this pain
'Cause I can't take this no, no, no more, you're all I'm living for
This is a letter to a thing called love
A lot of people tell me that love is a beautiful thing
But I witness the pain it brings, so love, if you still remain
Please bring your sun to my never ending rain, I love you
