Silent Regrets

Sunset Black

Summer says it's getting cold
But I don't hear her
And winter's too long to grow old
It's so contagious here
Everyone and everything
All I do is just complain
I can't believe I've made it here this longAnd I'm just contemplating why
I told you it all you said goodbye
And all I wanted was to say I'm sorryCause I have silent regrets for you
And I have silent regrets
Cause I have silent regrets for you
And I have silent regretsI feel ill your thoughts seem cold
But you don't see me
Shattered words that you once sold
I'm falling apart in here
Another day another night
Still alone I stand and fight
These demons that we deal with everydayAnd I'm just contemplating why
I told you it all you said goodbye
And all I wanted was to say I'm sorry
Can't you see there's so much more
Than the door you opened for
A chance to close and throw this all awayCause I have silent regrets for you
And I have silent regrets
Cause I have silent regrets for you
And I have silent regretsIn me
You save yourself
Turning this reason and fighting all seasons
To save myself this timeCause I have silent regrets for you
And I have silent regretsCause I have silent regrets for you
(That you can't see)
And I have silent regrets
(That I hold in me)
Cause I have silent regrets for you
(That you can't see)
And I have silent regrets
(That I hold in me)You save yourself
