French Kicks

Another night, said l have to calm down Another day, be another red light yeahh
l heard the sounds see l heard this on the one tell me ln my hand, whoaaaa-oh, your hand And everytime we stop see you get a little fill its all over there l know, l knowl waited on the feelin' l waited all the time
l hate the sort of feelin' when there's someone else in mind
And it's the time for killing by hearing all the timeDrive me out of line (Fashion)
And l was color-blind what do what l hear you say Maybe never want it see at all, no lt sounds like a mind too empty findin' in my hand Whoaaa-oh your hand and we got out just barely alive Ahh-ahh-ahh-ahh-ahh-ahh-ahhl waited on the feelin' l waited all the time
l hate the sort of feelin' when there's someone else in mind
And its the time for killing by hearing all the timeAnother notice, out on the phone-line (Line clashes, wonder what catches)
Do you want to hang this, me on the clothes-line (Now l'm feeling really such a fine time)l'm glad l relate to you, glad I'm that glad I'm too Know l don't mind you, I'm keeping in mind Glad l relate to you, glad l resolve to you, ahhh
