Automaton

Howard Jones

He arrived on the scene

With no past and no future

He seemed to know your dreams

Replace tears with laughterStreet corner whispers

Would mention his name

Selfish? Benevolent?

What was his game? Some say, he's perfect

Some say, a spy

A hidden power

They all wonder, whyThe rumors mounted

But still no fact

I need to find out

Some say, perfect hidden power

We all wonder, why Questions unanswered

Suspicion alerted

I went round to his place

If felt quite desertedI climbed the stairs to where

His body lay without motion

No spirit lives in there

The cord had been brokenHis skin was reptile

No life in there

Not young not old

A long hollow glareHis breath had stopped

No hearts beat there

Is this a man?

Should I believe hidden power

They all wondered, whyMy attention was caught

By a sound from the door

Panic gripped the mind

What lay in storeA being stared at me

Benevolent, not cold

Automaton, he is controlledHis skin was reptile

No life in there

Not young not old

A long hollow glareHis breath had stopped

No hearts beat there

Is this a man?

Should I believe hidden power

They all wondered, why Automaton, no life in there

No past and no future
Is this a manAutomaton, no life in there
No past and no futureAutomaton, no life in there
No past and no future
Is this a manAutomaton, no life in there
No past and no futureAutomaton, no life in there
No past and no future
Is this a manAutomaton, no life in there
No past and no future
Is this a man
