

Praise the King

Travis Cottrell

I've heard You in the thunder
I felt You in the rain
I've met You in the turmoil
I found You in the pain But here in the stillness
When this moment, all is well
Here I'm prone to wonder
Hear my rebel tell Cure my heart of chasing whirlwinds
Of needing earth to quake
Of wrestling made up angels
To keep myself away There's passion in the stillness
There's fire in the cloud
There's rest that brings a man to life
There's a voice that whispers loud
