

Hearts Once Stone

Tori Harris

I am dust, and dust I will be, but You will breathe life into me Oh, Oh, Oh

Back to the start

Oh, Oh, Oh

Whole as You are So loose the waters of Your word

Let their leaping joy be heard

Fill with love, forever fresh

Hearts once stone but now made flesh Satisfied by Your cup of mercy, So I'll drink deep of life eternally Oh, Oh,

Oh

Back to the start

Oh, Oh, Oh

Whole as You are So loose the waters of Your word

Let their leaping joy be heard

Fill with love, forever fresh

Hearts once stone but now made flesh

Roll the heavy stone away

Shape anew with earthen clay

Fill with love, forever fresh

Hearts once stone, but now made flesh Found in You, finally complete, Awaken me on the day of death's sleep Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh So loose the waters of Your word

Let their leaping joy be heard

Fill with love, forever fresh

Hearts once stone but now made flesh

Roll the heavy stone away

Fill with love, forever fresh

Hearts once stone, but now made flesh
