Not Giving In

Mustard Plug

Looking back from where I came
At a choice I made that was one big mistake
'Cause in the crowd I tried to hide
Couldn't keep the pace, so I had to break the strideCan't punch the clock
Can't walk the walk
Abhor the rut and never stop
Your life is not for meEvery step that I tried to take
Was a step behind, lost in the wake
And every truth, it became a lie
One question asked, that question is 'Why?'I'm giving up but I'm not giving in I'll make the stand
Not to stand in line
