

Over Myself

Kiesza

Stop now, don't take over me
My heart is burning up inside
And I felt it go up when your eyes
 Told another lie
 You never say it to me right
Baby this is my plea to you now
 Something's going down
 I thought it was all going right
 Then you changed my mind
This is my love and I can give it up
 I think I gotta break your heart
 To get over myselfYeah, yeah
 I think I gotta break your heart
 To get over myself
 Oh, oh
Whoa, whoaI think I gotta break your heart
To get over myselfDesire, oh it's killing me
 I feel it deep inside my bones
 So it's chillin' my soul
 I'm shattered
 I can't find no peace
Still trying to find an inch of truth
 In your mystery
 But I'm stronger
 Than I was before
I finally broken down the wall
 Where you shut the door
This is my love and I can give it up
 I think I gotta break your heart
 To get over myselfYeah, yeah
 I think I gotta break your heart
 To get over myself
 Oh, oh
Whoa, whoaI think I gotta break your heart
To get over myselfGiving it back
 I wanted what you have, but
 I'm giving it back
I'm sorry and I see the way you're
 Looking at me

I'm breaking in but now

I think I gotta break your heart to get over myselfTip of your love but I just don't feel it

Got what I want but I just don't need it

You're better off but you won't believe it

Over my, over myselfGiving it back

I wanted what you have, but

I'm giving it back

I'm sorry and I see that way that you're

Looking at me

I'm breaking in but now

I think I gotta break your heart to get over myselfGiving it back

I wanted what you have, but

I'm giving it back

I'm sorry and I see that way that you're

Looking at me

I'm breaking in but now

I think I gotta break your heart to get over myself
