Sad State of Affairs

Descendents

It's such a sad state of affairs, and I don't care
A sad state of affairs
It's such a sad state of affairs - I don't careLook at things long enough until they go away
But they're still there, aren't they?
And each little insect doesn't make me angry
And the dirt in the sink gets washed down the drainIt's such a sad state of affairs, and I don't care
A sad state of affairs
This place could use a little repair - I don't careThe TV on the table says listen to me hum
I sit on the sofa with my mind all numb
And each little murderer doesn't make me angry
And the dirt in the sink gets washed down the drainFollow the flow, wherever it goes
Down the drain, and everything's clean
Follow the blood, where is the blood?
Washed away, away from the sceneUse your time and memorize the lullaby of the day
Process the data and throw it away
And each little question doesn't get me thinking
And the lies of my life still buzz around my brain
