

Surely As The Sun

Hanson

(i. hanson/t. hanson/z. hanson)

As surely as the sun rises each day,
So my love, will never change,
And though the years, may come and go
My love will only grow and grow
Sometimes I wonder what you see in me
'cause I'm only a man flawed in so many ways you see
I want to share
Every moment of the day with you,

And I want to share every sunset and every sunset
And every moonlit night
Oh...as surely as the sun
Yeah, yeah, sometimes I wonder what you see in me
'cause I'm only a man
Flawed in so many ways you see
Everyday when the sun comes out
Surely as the sun
Surely as the sun
