

Diamond On A Landmine

Billy Talent

Slapped my face, slammed the door
A dozen roses lay on the floor
I saw her friends and I was told
She blocked my number from her cellphone
You said we were meant to be
Now this obsession is killing me
Until I have a heart attack
I'll keep on trying to win you back
Alone at last
I can't wait 'til we're alone at last
All I wanted was a second chance
Second chance to hold you in my arms at last
Forever, forever
I'll walk a thousand miles
Just to tell her, to tell her
Our love is still alive
And I'll never, I'll never
I'll never let it die
Well, you'd better watch your step
She's a diamond on a landmine
I'm not so sure about this word
But she kept calling me insecure
I tried to quit but there's no use
'Cause I'm addicted to her abuse
She's in control of everything
I'm just a puppet, she pulls my strings
Denying truth, I'll test my fate
I'll keep on playing this wicked game
Alone at last
I can't wait 'till we're alone at last
All I wanted was a second chance
Second chance to hold you in my arms at last
Forever, forever
I'll walk a thousand miles
Just to tell her, to tell her
Our love is still alive
And I'll never, I'll never
I'll never let it die

Well, you'd better watch your step
She's a diamond on a landmine
You'd better watch your step
She's a diamond on a landmine
You'd better watch your step
She's a diamond on a landmine
Waiting to explode
We're dancing on thin ice before
Frozen from the winter's cold
And if it were to crack below
I'd never let you go
Alone at last
I can't wait 'till we're alone at last
All I wanted was a second chance
Second chance to hold you in my arms at last
Forever, forever
I'll walk a thousand miles
Just to tell her, to tell her
Our love is still alive
And I'll never, I'll never
I'll never let it die
Well, you'd better watch your step
She's a diamond on a landmine
Better watch your step
She's a diamond on a landmine
You'd better watch your step
She's a diamond on a landmine
Waiting to explode
You'd better watch your step
She's a diamond on a landmine
You'd better watch your step
She's a diamond on a landmine
You better won't touch her
She's a diamond on a landmine
You'd better forget her
She's a diamond on a landmine
Waiting to explode
