You're Dumb

Black Lips

I know what I want
I know who I am
I feel like a God
who let the sunlight in
And if I was dumb
I'd know who I am
And if I was you
I wouldn't give a damn because, cause, causeYou're dumb and everyone's the same
If I tried
I couldn't find enough
Go! Go!Well if I was you
I'd know who I am
I wish I could fly
Just like my Uncle Sam
And I know what I want
Well I know who I am
Falling on the street
But I don't give a damn because, cause, causeYou're dumb
and everyone's the same
If I tried
I couldn't find enough
If all the leaves
on the trees were mine
All the space
will be free to die Go! Go!
