Knees Bled Begging

Lovehatehero

Just breatheNot now, but sooner I'm lost without her.
My trembling finger reached out to the picture of her nice and neat.
I'd spend the day remembering my first encounter.
Last chance to ask her
if she'd dance alone with me I held her near me
could feel her breathing and told myselfTo just breathe His knees
bled begging
he believed
she'd be there forever
but he'd lost her
they had broken it offI don't think that I could tell you how I feel right now
as time is running out, yea I'm falling downJust breatheTell me what to say tell me what to do
don't say
you need another day to think things through
don't say
your leaving
I want you to believe that I can do this but I can't change the way I feel today don't say your leavingJust breathe His knees
bled begging
he believed
but he'd lost her
how I feel right now
as time is running out, yea
I'm falling downI'll fall down, down

I'm falling down
I'm falling downJust breathe
His knees
bled begging
he believed
I'm falling downstay with me you won't be sorry [x5]
