

Gone Forever

God Forbid

I lived all these years, Lost in a hollow shell
Darkness clouds the corners of my mind
Will I ever see the truth?
Will he ever reveal himself? Will I be gone forever?
Will I disappear? Mirrors all around destroy me, reflections move
Through the darkness
Yet I stand still in fear and suffering
Fear is the only end I lived
