Anything Is Possible

Astral Projection

I don't know the future
I didn't come here to tell you
How this is going to end
It's the only way to fly

I'm going to show you the world
A world without rules and controls
A world without borders and boundaries
I don't know the future

I didn't come here to tell you
How this is going to end
I'm going to tell you how this is going to begin
A world where anything is possible
