Anywhere But Here

Sick Puppies

I held onto you for as long as I could
But today, you fell away
Now what I hold are the memories we barely made
I stood on the edge of your bridge
Until I felt the rain push me away
My confusion left me fast as the vertigo cameWhat I believed to be true
It was only a dream that lived in me
I just projected it over your beautiful screen
I self medicated my way
Through this mess that we made
So I could stay, there was nothing but I waited, I waitedThis was my mistake
Broken are plans we made
So I will be traveling any place
'Cause anywhere's better thanHere we rest in peace
Rubble beneath my feet
I shouldn't have followed you anywhere
'Cause anywhere's better than hereWhere is the space I could move?
Where could I rest my head?
There's nothing left for me hereIt's hard to leave behind
The one thing that made me feel alive
So I slide from paranoid to paradiseThis was my mistake
Broken are plans we made
So I will be traveling any place
'Cause anywhere's better than hereThis was my mistake
Broken are plans we madeHere we rest in peace
Rubble beneath my feet
I shouldn't have followed you anywhere
'Cause anywhere's better than here
