

Thank You

Nathaniel Rateliff & The Night Sweats

Spend your years
Spend your time
With all these tears
Not all were mine I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you sweet baby for getting me through Can't hide your fears
I can't hide mine
In spite of all this dear
I think we're fine I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you pretty baby for getting me through I was looking back there lord
Could have been no one else
I would have been so cold
Laying here by myself
Ever since you found me yeah
Never be anybody else
Yeah baby, yeah I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you
I just want to thank you sweet baby for getting me through
