

Turn the People

Monks of Mellonwah

Your teachings weigh me down I can relate
And lately Im convinced
Pleas me take control Im in your hands
Arriving to my painBleeding sacred sounds alleviate
All my bodys strain
Creep my way around a life of hate
Maybe Im too lateTime brings us down
To the ground
But all I know
Is safe and sound
Lost or found its all the sameAnd all the seas
Roll around
Turn the people
Upside down
See confusion tear awaySooth me serenade the night away
Just so I can feel
Save me keep a place between your hands
Youre all I ever hadTime brings us down
To the ground
But all I know
Is safe and sound
Lost or found its all the sameAnd all the seas
Roll around
Turn the people
Upside down
See confusion tear away
