Camaro

Liz Longley

I'm like his red hot vintage Camaro
For years I was the only thing he had
We've got two hundred thousand miles of memories
Kissing at stop lights and making love in the back
And you come around all brand new
He likes your style and the way you move
You want to replace me
Think you'll erase me
But Love ain't something you can just undo
His fingerprints are all over me
He still feels that rush when he looks at me
He's holding onto you but he can't let go of me
You're just his shiny new thing, yeah
Shiny new thing, yeah
I put the story in his history
You're just a sentence on a page
Lately he's trying to resist me
Cause he knows one touch and he'll never turn away
His fingerprints are all over me
He still feels that rush when he looks at me
He's holding onto you but he can't let go of me
You're just his shiny new thing, yeah
Shiny new thing, yeah
Oh he said, just one ride, just one quick spin
He jingles his keys and he lets himself in
He turns me on and he revs me up
Gets me going faster but it ain't fast enough
So he floors the gas and he pops the clutch
And we start spinning out just to feel that rush
He said my fingerprints are all over you
I still Love you and you know I do
Nothing ever compares to you
Cause you're my classic
I got to have it
My first true Love
The one I always dreamed of
Yeah you're in my heart I take you where I go
Oh you're my red hot vintage Camaro
