Dimension

Beseech

Awakened by the sun, and the whispers from the mirrorland
Caressed by its beauty, I will travel through space and time
The life I once lived, is forgotten and has turned to dust
My soul has now entered, the dimension of the greater onesI close my eyes to see myself
I will meet the dreams, and the spirits in my phantasy
Their touch will heal me, I can walk through the mirror again
I am inhuman and a guardian of the dreamsTables have turned, caressed by its beauty
Release your soul and fly free
Accept its existence, be brave
Take my hand and fly awayI close my eyes to see myself
I will meet the dreams and the spirits in my phantasy
Their touch will heal me, I can walk through the mirror again
I am inhuman and a guardian of the dreams
