Coffee

Gnarwolves

Will you stay forever, indebted friend?
Her voice is in my head.
Entwined with a railroad track.
The lines will sing, electric and smothering.Feet in cold sand, thinking of new plans
I'm way in over my head
Dark clouds are coming, concealing nothing
I'm way in overWill you stay forever, indebted friend?
Her ghost is in my head.Sleep where you're told
Coffee and cold
Sleep when you need
I'll sleep when I'm old
Coffee and cold
