

You Know The Rest

'Til Tuesday

Here I go again
Making promises
If I tell you no
It still sounds like yes You know the rest
Do I have to say it? Am I in too deep?
Can I still confess?
When you trusted me
That was just a guess I guess
You know the rest
You know the rest
Do I have to say it? Well, I warned you once
But without success
And I just escape
With my heart
A mess Know the rest
(It's not so easy)
You know the rest
(It's not that easy)
Do I have to say it?
You know the rest.
