Ignorance Is Beautiful

Kyprios

They try to put my whole life on display
And when I got a job, you know I dont delay
Your aunt a pro in the game you procrastinate
From Tokyo to the golden gateBang from the general
Bang from the tank
Bang, bang from the captain
Bang from the leftHold a lotta weight, I got a lot of bread to make
I gotta find a better way to make a million in a day
Batter, batter swing when I'm at the plate
Said a lot of things but won't be fakeWalkin' with God tryin' to get me saved
But the devils on my shoulder, showin' me the way
A to the B, centuries of defeat, enemies of the free
Who believe what they read and they say what they see
But they see with the same eyes of the enterprise, tellin' lies to meHelp me because I wanna warn the citizens
Every one's only guilty of their innocence
Freedom is just business as usual
Ugly, the ignorant are looking beautifulHelp me because I wanna warn the citizens
Every one's only guilty of their innocence
Freedom is just business as usual
Ugly, the ignorant are looking beautiful
YeahI'm so ugly but my mommy loves me
And your girlfriend fucks me
'Cause I'm making so much moneyIm a pimp, pimp, thats what I think
Now go into the bar and grab me a drink
Nicotine amphetamines will make you feel better
A little bit of juice and a little amarettoNo one ever said it better
I never knew love but I knew each letter
L for the ladies, O for the ovary's
V for the vagina, E for the ecstasySee, see, wanna TV
And a star on the boulevard of easy street
Please me, appease me, now go
And grab a friend come back and tease meGotta forty inch screen for forty of my friends
Oh Lord, won't you buy me a Mercedes Benz?
For forty days and forty nights, it rained like a mother fucker
Sun is comin' out yea, better run for cover suckerHelp me because I wanna warn the citizens
Every one's only guilty of their innocence
Freedom is just business as usual
Ugly, the ignorant are looking beautiful
Yeah
