

Hostage

Nothing but Thieves

When I'm in the dark
Sometimes I feel like a hostage
Keep me in the dark
I want to feel like a hostageThe night and the dark appreciate
The light and the heat we generate
My heart and my soul co-operate
I want you to be happyI just want to give myself to it
I'll come when you call me a little bitch
It gets me when you whisper it
I want you to be happySometimes I feel like a hostage
When I'm in the dark
Sometimes I feel like a hostage
Point it at my heartI want you
I want you
I want you to be happy
I want you
I want you
I want you
I want you to be happyThe day and the night don't separate
This ache for you starts to dominate
I'm finding it hard to concentrate
I want you to be happyI wait for you like a prisoner
Whatever it is that moves in us
It's starting to feel a lot like love
I want you to be happySometimes I feel like a hostage
When I'm in the dark
Sometimes I feel like a hostage
Point it at my heartI warned you
I warned you
I want you to be happy
I warned you
I warned you
I want you to be happySometimes I feel like a hostage
Sometimes I feel like a hostage
Sometimes I feel like a hostageI want you
I want you
I want you to be happy
I want you
I want you
I want you
I want you to be happy

I want you
I want you
I want you to be happy
I want you
I want you
I want you to be happy
