

Seek Ye First

Ramsay

Restless spirits and wandering eyes
Will never be satisfied
Too much will never be enough
To fill that ache inside
Self indulgence is the mark of fools
But wisdom satisfies the wise
Why gain the world
And loose your only soul
When true love or peace
Cant be bought nor soldSo seek ye first the kingdom of Jah
And your soul will be satisfied
Seek ye first the kingdom of Jah
And youll have eternal lifeThere will be no peace
In this world you seek
The things of this world
Can bring no peace
They are just vanity
That fade with time
Only Jah Jah love
Satisfies the mind
The things of this world
Are only vexation
To the spirit of God and man
So if its true peace that you seek
Seek the promised landSo seek ye first the kingdom of Jah
And your soul will be satisfied
Seek ye first the kingdom of Jah
And youll have eternal life
