My Refuge

Sonicflood

I take my refuge in the palm of Your hand
I take my comfort in Your perfect plan
I take my sorrow and lay it down at Your feet
I take my refuge where I can be freeIn You, oh Lord, in You, my God
When there's no where to turn
And there's nothing that's true
I find my peace here in YouI take my shelter in the shade of Your wings
I take my pleasure in the hope that You bring
I take my weakness to the foot of the cross
I take my refuge where I can get lostIn You, oh Lord, in You, my God
When there's no where to turn
And there's nothing that's true
I find my peace here in YouI worship You, Lord for all that You are
I stretch out my faith and lay down my heart
There's no where else that I'd rather be
The where there's more You, Lord
The where there's less meIn You, Oh Lord, in You, my God
When there's no where to turn
And there's nothing that's true
I find my peace here in YouIn You, Oh Lord, in You, my God
When there's no where to turn
And there's nothing that's true
I find my peace here in You, yeahI will worship You with all my heart, my soul
I will worship You with all my mind, my strength
I will worship You with all my heart, my soul
I will worship You with all my mind, my strength
