If U Say

Keshia Chante

Eh ey,Oh no no,yeah eh,
You promised me lastnight,that things were gonna change
Woke up this morning babe and things were just the same
Walking down the hallway, and looking at the photographs
Looking at all the times you use to make me laugh
Now you gone and its wrong I'm in this kitchen cooking breakfast alone its so wrong cause you gone, I don't care
If you say you love me then just make it right
If you say you need me why we argue and fight
If you say you need me then just make it work
Just make it right, just make it right
Why am I still waiting for you at the front door
I got myself all dolled up, your favorite dress down to the floor
Its 9:45 wait, this reservations at 8
You couldn't even call me, to tell me you'd be late
And it's wrong, still not home
I'm in this kitchen cooking dinner alone, it's so wrong, you ain't home

I don't care
If you say you love me then just make it right
If you say you need me why we argue and fight
If you say you need me then just make it work
Just make it right, just make it right, just make it right, just make it right
Oh no, I'm sick of everything that you said oohh (always promising tomorrow)
Did you think that I'm the girl who would stay for you (your promises are hollow)?
I really don't know what to do ohh, I deserve much better than you
Now you home all alone
You're in the kitchen thinking where we went wrong
I'm so gone I'm so gone, I don't care
If you say you love me then just make it right
If you say you love me why we argue and fight
If you say you need me then just make it work
Just make it right, just make it right
