

James Bondage

Pansy Division

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

James bondage is a man I know
I picked him up pumping gas up on castro
I knew he was the one for me
Grey temples and a little paunch
Looks like he jumped out of the pages of honcho
I knew he had his eyes on me
Back to his bedroom
For a little role play
You know by now
I know that it won
