Weary Stars

Michael Paynter

i can feel you pull away try to work this out but there's just no words to say ooh ooh
it's so hard letting you go
ooh ooh
when it's only you i knowcoz i've given you all i can we've been us so long now i don't know who i am
ooh ooh
now it's all just slipping away
ooh ooh
and i'll never find the words to make it okayit's like i stood under the sky as the stars collapsed but i'll never let a heartbreak hold me back i'm singing oh oh ohhhhhand everything we've been it was blazing now but i feel that way as it hit the ground now i'm singing oh oh those weary stars awoke my heartcan we put this down to another lesson learned this is one more page that i just can't wait to turn ooh ohh tell me one last thing as you leave
ooh ooh
will you try it all again to find another meit's like i stood under the sky as the stars collapsed and i'll never let a heartbreak hold me back
those weary stars awoke my heartthis time we can't go back we've travelled way too far the truth, the lies, the facts that buried in my scarsi can feel you pull awayit's like i stood under sky as the stars collapsed
but i'll never let a heartbreak hold me back
those weary stars awoke my heartit's like i stood under sky as the stars collapsed
but i'll never let a heartbreak hold me back

those weary stars awoke my heart
