Professional

Byrd Lady

I'm so, professional
My momma said do what you know, and go pro
I'm so, professional
My momma said do what you know, and go pro
(Verse 1):
Sloppy, push my way to the front
Shoes are untied, the shirt's untucked
Get off the wagon, or eat my dust
Grab the coattails, or be like us
Can't be late when you don't show up
Punch the clock till the glass got stuck
In my hand now how am I supposed to chug?
Let's get lambos, fuck the bus
Say mom, I wanna be a rockstar
Ask her opinion, she'll get lock jawed
Doesn't matter though, she can't stop the Way you're living, now fuck the cop cars
Amps on ten, let's break the knob
ODP meets Tim McGraw
When it comes to spazzin', I'll take the job
So professional, it going hard
(Chorus):
Well I'm so, professional
My momma said do what you know, and go pro
I'm so, professional
My momma said do what you know, and go pro
So I'm down all day, I'm up all night

I drink all day, so I'm fucked all night
I'm down all day, I'm up all night
My momma said do what you know, and do it right
(Verse 2):
Back it up girl, I wave you in
Buck's stayin' in, and I came to win
The line that I'm walking is paper thin
I shut down every single place I'm in Professional, born to spazz
Broke a leg and then joined the cast
Can't slow down, my life's too fast

And I'm trying to get paid, first and last
Rock with me, Be cool again
Get stupid, like you need school again
I'm foolish, you can get fooled again
Jump on stage like a hooligan
9 to 5, shit why try?
Fans hands in the air like wi-fi
I'm oh so pro, CEO, run my mouth cause I run the show
(Chorus):
Well I'm so, professional
My momma said do what you know, and go pro
I'm so, professional
My momma said do what you know, and go pro
So I'm down all day, I'm up all night
I drink all day, so I'm fucked all night
I'm down all day, I'm up all night
My momma said do what you know, and do it right
