Silk

Necktarium

Dangerous is you to me, addicted I sure am
Lock me up and keep me from this devil's master plan
It mystifies me how you drive me crazy with a kiss
Spellbound, boy, I still dream of this
I like the way you look at me
Every morning when I wake up
I can't deny, sometimes I believe
Give me what I need
Your touch is like silk
Stroking my body
Softer than skin
Bringing the pleasure in
Your touch is like silk
Making me shiver
Making me sweat
I must get free of this boy I can't forget
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
Silk, silk
Fragile is this broken heart, can't take this pain no more
Inflammable is my whole life, yes, I've been burned before
Keep my distance though I'm drawn to everything I miss
Tongue tied, I can still taste your kiss
I like the way you smile at me
In the evening 'cross a crowded room
I can't forget how good it feels
When you're close to me
Your touch is like silk
Stroking my body
Softer than skin
Bringing the pleasure in
Your touch is like silk
Making me shiver
Making me sweat
I must get free of this boy I can't forget
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
Your touch is like

Silk, silk
Your touch is like silk
Stroking my body
Softer than skin
Bringing the pleasure in
Your touch is like silk
Making me shiver
Making me sweat
Stroking my body
Softer than skin
Bringing the pleasure in
Making me shiver
Making me sweat
I must get free of this boy I can't forget
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
Silk, silk
